

In Testimonies Volume 9 beginning on page 11 there is an article called “The Last Crisis”

On pages 12 and 13 are some paragraphs I want to focus on. I will quote them at the end of this post.

Notice these characteristics:

1. In New York City
2. At one time
3. More than one building
4. Buildings of lofty height
5. There would be fire
6. Buildings destroyed simultaneously
7. Buildings considered fireproof and safe
8. Firemen would be unable to operate their engines and fight the fire

All these characteristics match what happened to the World Trade Center in New York City on September 11, 2001.

My conclusion is that 9/11 marks the beginning of the last crisis of earth’s history. God sent his people this prophecy so that they could see it if they would. 9/11 is a warning of what is to come, the beginning of the general destruction of the world. We have a short time to prepare before the crisis escalates with the coming Sunday laws, and if we neglect to prepare for that time now, it will be too late then. We must have our characters prepared for the close of probation.

On one occasion, when in New York City, I was in the night season called upon to behold buildings rising story after story toward heaven. These buildings were warranted to be fireproof, and they were erected to glorify their owners and builders. Higher and still higher these buildings rose, and in them the most costly material was used. Those to whom these buildings belonged were not asking themselves: “How can we best glorify God?” The Lord was not in their thoughts. {9T 12.1}

I thought: “Oh, that those who are thus investing their means could see their course as God sees it! They are piling up magnificent buildings, but how foolish in the sight of the Ruler of the universe is their planning and devising. They are not studying with all the powers of heart and mind how they may glorify God. They have lost sight of this, the first duty of man.” {9T 12.2}

As these lofty buildings went up, the owners rejoiced with ambitious pride that they had money to use in gratifying self and provoking the envy of their neighbors. Much of the money that they thus invested had been obtained through exaction, through grinding down the poor. They forgot that in heaven an account of every business transaction is kept; every unjust deal, every fraudulent act, is there recorded. The time is coming when in their fraud and insolence men will reach a point that the Lord will not permit them to pass, and they will learn that there is a limit to the forbearance of Jehovah. {9T 12.3}

The scene that next passed before me was an alarm of fire. Men looked at the lofty and supposedly fire-proof buildings and said: “They are perfectly safe.” But these buildings were consumed as if made of pitch. The fire engines could do nothing to stay the destruction. The firemen were unable to operate the engines. {9T 13.1}

I am instructed that when the Lord’s time comes, should no change have taken place in the hearts of proud, ambitious human beings, men will find that the hand that had been strong to save will be strong to destroy. No earthly power can stay the hand of God. No material can be used in the erection of buildings that will preserve them from destruction when God’s appointed time comes to send retribution on men for their disregard of His law and for their selfish ambition. {9T 13.2}
